

Legislative Budget Board
Criminal Justice Forums
Hosted by the Criminal Justice Data Analysis Team of the Legislative Budget Board

Robert E. Johnson Conference Center
1501 N. Congress Austin, TX 78701
Fall 2011 – Spring 2012

Purpose and Overview: The Legislative Budget Board's (LBB) Criminal Justice Forums will provide a regular venue to discuss ongoing criminal justice issues with various stakeholders in state government and academia. LBB analysts will present research in greater detail than most legislative settings allow. Beginning in October 2011, forums will occur on the first Friday of each month from 1:30PM-3:00PM at the Robert E. Johnson Conference Center in Austin, Texas. The first hour will consist of a presentation by LBB staff and the final thirty minutes will include a question/answer discussion with the audience regarding the subject material. There is no cost to attend the Criminal Justice Forums. Links to reports that correspond with each forum topic are listed at the end of the forum description. You may find having a hard copy of the entire report helpful.

Who Should Attend?

- Legislative staff
- State agency staff
- Local government personnel
- Undergraduate/graduate faculty/staff
- Undergraduate/graduate students
- Advocacy groups
- Media/bloggers
- General public

Why Attend?

The Criminal Justice Data Analysis Team of the Legislative Budget Board provides the Texas Legislature with in-depth analysis of criminal and juvenile justice trends. These analyses are primarily used for policy and funding decisions but can provide valuable information for the audiences listed above. The LBB's Criminal Justice Forums will provide interested audiences a chance to interact with LBB researchers, learn about methodologies and findings, and provide the LBB input and recommendations to further refine LBB analyses.

Criminal Justice Forum Topics and Dates:

Overview of the LBB and Texas At-Risk Youth Services Project – October 7, 2011 (1:30PM – 3:00PM)

Presenters: Michele Connolly, Ed Sinclair

An overview of the Legislative Budget Board and the Criminal Justice Data Analysis team will be provided at the beginning of the first Criminal Justice Forum. Additionally, a brief overview of the Criminal Justice Forum's format will be discussed.

The Texas At-Risk Youth Services Project (ARYSP) is a research project aimed at improving service delivery to youth at-risk of juvenile delinquency in Texas. The ARYSP employed a hybrid quantitative/qualitative research method to better understand the delivery of services to at-risk youth in Texas and provide legislative recommendations to the 82nd Texas Legislature (2011). This forum will explore the background of the ARYSP, its findings, related legislative outcomes, and the next phase of the project. http://www.lbb.state.tx.us/PubSafety_CrimJustice/3_Reports/At_Risk_Youth_Services.pdf
